In case the company has issued the convertible debentures and the convertible debenture holders do not exercise their conversion rights in the specified time The Board of Directors is of the opinion that the Company still has the ability to pay debts to the convertible debenture holders. Based on the revenue from the ownership transfer in various projects of the Company, as of December 31, 2020, the Group has a backlog of Baht 9,584.36 million, which will gradually recognize the revenue during 2021. Until 2023

In addition, for information to shareholders and to comply with relevant rules, the Board of Director would like to inform the shareholders that in the event that the Company's directors fail to perform their duties honestly and carefully to preserve the interests of the Company in matters relating to the issuance of convertible debentures in this agenda and the capital increase in Agenda 4 and the allocation of newly issued ordinary shares in Agenda 5. And If the failure to perform the said duty causes damage to the company shareholders able to claim compensation from such director on behalf of the company under Section 85 of the Public Limited Companies Act B.E. Shareholders can exercise their right to sue the benefits from such directors on behalf of the company under Section 89/18 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E.1992.

The Chairman inquired if any shareholders would ask or have an opinion on this matter.

Questions and opinions form shareholders

Question from Khun Sathaporn Kotheeranurak (shareholder) inquired that

1. Is the buyer of the debentures a person related to the company or not?
2. What is the benefit to the company in the future?
3. Is the convertible price appropriate? Because the convertible price is lower than the market price

Khun Thanakorn Thanavarith, Director, answered the questions as follows:

1. The buyer of the debentures is not a connected person with the company in any way
2. With the situation of COVID 19 and the current real estate business, the company has determined that The issuance of convertible debentures will enhance liquidity for the company's business.

In the part of question number 3 of Khun Sathaporn Kothiranurak, Khun Thanakorn Thanavarith, Director, asked Khun Sawin Laosettakun. A financial advisor, S1 Win Consultant Company Limited, answered this question.

3. Khun Sawin Laosethakul A financial advisor, S1Win Consultant Company Limited clarified that the average price of the convertible debentures is at 5.46 baht and the current share price of the company is 3.58 baht, which can be considered that the average conversion price is higher. Company share price Not lower Questions from Khun Adirex Asapitaksith (Proxy from the Thai Investors Association) ask for additional questions.

How is the issuance of convertible bonds better than the traditional bonds? That is why the company uses this method

Khun Sawin Laosethakul A financial advisor, S1 Win Consultant Company Limited clarified that the issuance of debentures is the allocation of risk for the company. Traditional bond issuance will have an interest rate of 6 - 8% per annum with the requirement to repay the principal amount. While convertible debentures have an interest rate of 2% per annum, the interest rate burden is lower. And in the 3- year period, the convertible debentures will be converted to the Company's ordinary shares. As a result, the company is not required to use the cash flow to return the principal. Able to invest the whole amount of money for long term investment or invest in other real estate businesses

Khun Kesara Manchusree, Chairman of the Board, further clarified that the company has also considered the funding of the company that we need to get from, for example, we need to borrow money from banks in the form of project financing or regular debentures but the issuance of convertible debentures is another option to give the company a suitable financial structure at interest rates that we can expand on other areas

Question from Khun Piyaphong Prasartthong (shareholder) for further inquiry: Does the company plan to issue unsubordinated debentures?

Khun Dusadee Lekyim, director, answered the following questions. The company itself has not closed the opportunity in this matter. Depending on the situation in each market that. Is it suitable or not?

The Chairman inquired whether any shareholders would inquire or have additional opinions on this matter.

Since there were no question or opinion, The Chairman asked the meeting to consider and vote. And informed the meeting that This agenda must be approved by a vote of not less than three-fourths of the shareholders who attend the meeting and have the right to vote.

Resolution

The shareholders' meeting passed a resolution approving the issuance of And offering convertible bonds The total value does not exceed 1,000 million baht for specific investors, including AO Fund and AO Fund 1, and assigned to the Board of Directors. Or authorized directors of the company Or Chief Executive Officer Or a person at the Board of Directors Or authorized directors of the company Or the Chief Executive Officer assigned Has the power to determine details, amend or take any actions necessary and in connection with the issuance and offering of convertible debentures as proposed above. And has already established a juristic person There are still some parts of the central part that are still in the process of delivery.

Questions from Khun Adirek Asapitaksith (Proxy from the Thai Investors Association) asked further if The Chairman of the Board has organized a 100% Meeting Online meeting, which is considered very well organized. There is a registration system Identity verification system There is a voting system for both agreeing. And disagree There is a system for shareholders to ask questions. And shareholders can access both mobile phones And computer (PC) However, the President will notice that The number of shareholders attending the meeting was very small. Although there is a system of convenience Last year, the Thai Investors Association conducted a study and research on this subject. It was found that the majority of shareholders would like the company to arrange a hybrid arrangement, that is, the shareholders are assigned to attend the meeting in a physical manner, but may be limited to the number, for example, not more than 50 people with spaced seats. Is it possible or not?

Khun Kesara Manchusree, Chairman of the Board, clarified that we really want to do so, but this is still the time when Covid- 19 It still happens in various places and this time it is EGM meeting. However, we will take this opinion into consideration that in the government sector itself there are not many problems. Regarding the AGM meeting that will take place in the next few months. We will consider holding a hybrid meeting. We ourselves are delighted to hold the hybrid meeting but still have to wait and see the opinions of government agencies on the matter of holding various meetings again, thank you for the advice.

Question from Khun Sathaporn Kotheeranurak (shareholder) inquired that
What is the management policy for the administration during this coronavirus?

Khun Thanakorn Thanavarith, Director, answered the following questions.

The company has a management plan as stated before. And the company has operated continuously in terms of cost control, efficiency in various matters. Empowering employees, including accelerating transfers Speeding up sales to increase cash flow and consider investment carefully, focus on the Company's core businesses such as condominiums that are ready to be transferred, which will make the Company mainly recognize revenue this year. Focus on matters that can generate income.

Khun Kesara Manchusree, Chairman of the Board would like to add that thanks to the shareholders for their continued support of ALL, I must inform that the management team according to Mr. Thanakorn Thanavarit has studied for a while. Has operated business carefully for the company to be sustainable. Today we have requested permission to increase capital in order to distribute dividends to our shareholders. And allocation of structures Such as in the matter of convertible bonds Which is also preparing for the future

Question from Khun Piyaphong Prasartthong (shareholder) asked
Does the company have a project development plan in the suburbs to support the electric train or not?

Khun Thanakorn Thanavarith, Director, answered the following questions.

As mentioned earlier We still would like to focus on Bangkok first. And focus on businesses that generate income quickly. Still would like to confirm to stay in Bangkok first. For the suburbs, it should be the next step.

Question from Khun Sathaporn Kothiranurak (shareholder) inquired that
Ask for details of who is going to buy the bonds and what special conditions are there such as sending someone to become a director?

Khun Kesara Manchusree, Chairman of the Board of Directors Have answered the following questions

According to the Term Sheet that has already been presented. The main conditions are the interest rate of 2% , the bond tenure is 3 years, the conversion to ordinary shares at a special rate that is a premium from the market price. As for the conditions for the new directors to enter, at present we do not have those conditions.

Question from Khun Anucha Sermsilapakul inquired whether the COVID situation affected the transfer or not.

Khun Thanakorn Thanavarith, Director, answered that In the beginning there was an impact because the ownership transfer will depend on whether the retail lending bank will work or not. This is the period when the bank WORK FROM HOME makes the document submission process more step. Causing some delays. But nowadays it is not an obstacle anymore because the bank and the company have adjusted their strategy to make it possible to work faster and to make it possible to transfer ownership as usual.

Question from Khun Wichian Paritramongkol would like to inquire Khun Thanakorn that last year, WARRANTS shares were issued instead of dividends, curious why the major shareholder sold all of WARRANTS shares?

Khun Thanakorn Thanavarith, Director, replied that as the Thanavarit family holds almost 70% of the shares, considering selling Warrants is a decision to sell in order to increase liquidity in the market. To have a greater number of current stocks in the market which can be seen that the current WARRANTS price will go up to one baht more then and after I, myself buy more ordinary shares of the company during the month of September.
